

Satisfaction by the Slice at Mama Gina's Pizzeria

With two successful restaurants in the Phoenix area (Tryst Café in Phoenix and Sami's Gyros in Tempe), it is no surprise that Sami and Lisa Khanisho's latest venture is already taking the West Valley by storm. Since opening for business in March, Mama Gina's Pizzeria has been delighting customers with delicious Italian cuisine and hand-tossed New York-style thin crust pizza. With its prime location smack in the middle of the action at Westgate City Center, Mama Gina's Pizzeria is sure to quickly become one of the West Valley's tastiest new destinations.

"Eating at Mama Gina's is like going to grandma's house for Sunday dinner," Lisa explains. "It's all the wonderful flavors of a home-cooked meal. We use all fresh ingredients, and all of our sauces, pizza dough and entrees are made fresh daily. Each plate is made to order. The portions are generous and the prices are exceptionally reasonable."

Start your meal off right with a Mama's Sampler Platter filled with bruchetta, garlic knots, mozzarella sticks, zucchini slices, fried mushrooms and onion rings. Or, get down and dirty with an order of traditional or boneless chicken wings, tossed with your choice of Hot, Mild, Chili Lime or BBQ sauces and a side of bleu cheese or ranch dressing.

For your main course, you can't go wrong with any of Mama Gina's delicious pasta dishes. Looking for a traditional Italian favorite? Mama Gina's has them all. Choose from spaghetti, ravioli, baked ziti or lasagna. Or dig into an order of Chicken or Eggplant Parmesan that has been breaded and topped with tomato sauce and mozzarella cheese.

And if you are just looking for a piping hot slice of delicious New York-style pizza, Mama Gina's is sure to cure your craving. The hand-tossed thin crust pizza is baked in a stone oven and can be enjoyed by the slice or by the whole pie. Choose from simple favorites like pepperoni or cheese, or go all out with the Mama's Supreme topped with mozzarella, pepperoni, sausage, onion, green peppers, mushrooms and extra cheese. Be sure to leave room for either the cannoli or the cheesecake—you won't be sorry. "We are family-owned and operated and we strive to create an environment where everyone can feel comfortable, whether they are families, business people, couples on a date or teens coming in before or after a movie," Lisa explains. "We take great pride in the daily preparation of the food. You'll taste the quality and freshness in every bite."

Mama Gina's friendly atmosphere and delectable home-style Italian food is ideal for all ages. There is a full bar and televisions for the sports fans, and both indoor and patio dining perfect for intimate dinners or family gatherings. And be sure to check out both the daily pizza and drink specials and the fantastic loyalty program where you can earn rewards with every visit.
